CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL TRADE TRIBUNAL FINDS NO INJURY

POLYISO INSULATION BOARD FROM THE UNITED STATES

Ottawa, Ontario, May 6, 2010—The Canadian International Trade Tribunal today found that the dumping of polyiso insulation board from the United States had not caused injury and was not threatening to cause injury to the domestic industry. Anti-dumping duties will therefore not be collected by the Canada Border Services Agency. The complainant in this case was IKO Sales Ltd. of Toronto, Ontario.

The Tribunal will issue the reasons for its finding on May 21, 2010.

The Tribunal is an independent quasi-judicial body that reports to Parliament through the Minister of Finance. It hears cases on dumped and subsidized imports, safeguard complaints, complaints about federal government procurement and appeals of customs and excise tax rulings. When requested by the federal government, the Tribunal also provides advice on other economic, trade and tariff matters.
